ITS ABOUT BEARDED MAN FISTING A BEAR, No really it does; Okay, its a very simple beat'em up game where you have a very tight control of punching and kicking mechanic. Duration is short and very repetitive as most of bear and boss bear have the same fighting movement only with different health. Lack of combo due to only have punching, kicking and stomping is very dissapoint so does the level interaction. The game solely sold base on its humor rather than it gameplay. So if you like bear joke then your are welcome. Graphic-wise its pixelly and with good choice of colour.. i have a beard i love this game.. Love this game. Tons of references, lots of laughs, and very crude. I did not expect it to be so very crude, but it was.. It's okay, but has an extremely repetitive combat system.. Simple scrolling beatemup game. Fight in an urban area, then fight dinosaurs. Renegade all over again. But without those bikers you could jump kick. And without weapons. But with more attacks and stats progression. Just by looking at the screenshots one can tell if the game style suits them.. It's not the worst game I've played, but I've definitely played better. I appreciate the blending of Atari-ish graphics with some newer style effects. However, I think retro graphics are more the rule than the exception at this point and they don't necessarily fit the style of game. The same goes for the jokes; They're something I like, especially the puns, but the "fighting bears = manliness" line of joking is just beating a dead horse (or bear) nowadays. The mechanics are simple and functional, this isn't bad. What I don't like about the mechanics is the lack of combos and special moves. I'm willing to give that a pass given that this is a port of a mobile game. In summary, I don't recommend the game at it's current retail price of $7.99. If you end up with a coupon like I did, you genuinely enjoy the beat-em up genre and you want a fun little diversion get it.. Simple scrolling beatemup game. Fight in an urban area, then fight dinosaurs. Renegade all over again. But without those bikers you could jump kick. And without weapons. But with more attacks and stats progression. Just by looking at the screenshots one can tell if the game style suits them.
